

DISCLAIMER & INDEMNITY

The following disclaimer must be signed by guests on arrival, this indemnity is recommended by the by the Tourism Grading Council of South Africa. In the case of a group of people a representative must sign the document for and on behalf of all members in the group. "The Proprietor, its agent/s and/or its employee/s ("the Proprietor") shall not be liable for, and the guest/s hereby waive/s and abandon/s any claims of whatever nature including but not limited to that for theft, injury, loss or damage of whatever nature, against the Proprietor, whether arising from the Proprietor's default, negligence or otherwise. The guest/s, in addition to the aforesaid, hereby indemnify the Proprietor against any claims which may arise from whatever nature, whether arising from the Proprietor's default, negligence or otherwise.

Whilst every endeavour is made in terms of the above recommendation to provide for the exclusion of an innkeeper's liability, such liability or exclusion thereof is never absolute and is always subject to a matter of degree and the application of an appropriate court's discretion.

It should also be borne in mind that the court's discretion is applied judicially but subject to the credibility and worthiness of appropriate evidence.

I agree that this indemnity is valid should I visit the guesthouse at a later date.
